

The Honorable Ellen L. Koblitz (Ret.) is special counsel in the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) practice, Appellate Advocacy practice, and Family Law practice at Pashman Stein Walder Hayden P.C.. She focuses her practice on mediation and arbitration of family law and Chancery matters. In addition, she advises attorneys and clients on appellate matters, including reviewing appellate briefs and conducting moot court appellate arguments.

Judge Koblitz joined the firm in 2020 after serving as a judge in the Appellate Division of the New Jersey Superior Court for 10 years, including two years as Presiding Judge. In the Appellate Division, Judge Koblitz heard appeals from decisions of the trial courts, tax court, and state administrative agencies.

First appointed to the New Jersey Superior Court in 1993, Judge Koblitz served in the Special Civil Part and Criminal Part in Bergen County. She then served as Presiding Judge of the Family Part from 1998 to 2008, when she was tapped to serve as Presiding Judge of the Chancery Division in Bergen County. She served as Chair of the New Jersey Supreme Court Education Committee.

Judge Koblitz graduated from Yale Law School and the University of Chicago.