

Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D. C. 20543

CHAMBERS OF
JUSTICE RUTH BADER GINSBURG

February 13, 2018

To the Rutgers Law School Class of 1968:

Your life in the law began at Rutgers Law School, as did my seventeen law teaching years. The Law School was a place that allowed us space to think and grow in understanding what is needed to make the USA “a more perfect Union.”

All of you may not have loved Civil Procedure as I did (and still do). But you were a lively class, just what a teacher needs to prompt her best efforts.

Cheers on your 50th anniversary. May the Class of 1968 stay strong and resilient.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ruth Bader Ginsburg". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a large initial "R".

Ruth Bader Ginsburg