

Fellow classmates,

On behalf of the Federalist Society at Rutgers Law Newark, I would like to extend our deepest condolences to the family, friends, and loved ones of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, and Ahmaud Arbery. We are sickened, angry, and determined to make a difference.

At the Federalist Society, we firmly believe that police brutality is a serious problem in this country that must be given priority. Without shame, this issue has disproportionately devastated African American families for too long. In the coming weeks, our club will be working closely with the University and other student-groups to get involved in the quest for change.

At Federalist Society, we stand beside you in this fight. It has been inspiring to watch the University begin to come together and we are proud to join you.
