

The Federalist Society
Rutgers Law School Camden
217 N. 5th St. Camden, NJ 08102
rutgersfedsoc@gmail.com

The Rutgers-Camden chapter of the Federalist Society extends its support and love to all of those peacefully protesting the senseless killing of George Floyd at the hands of the Minneapolis Police Department. Our nation is founded on the principle that “all men are created equal and that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.” It is to secure these rights that governments are instituted among men and we must never turn our backs on that guiding principle. We share the anger and sadness of all of those across the nation who want to see justice prevail and the government held to account. The Rutgers-Camden chapter of the Federalist Society looks forward to continuing to be a platform for discussion, debate, and inquiry into the reforms and policy that will increase accountability and further the pursuit of justice. We welcome the collaboration of fellow student organizations who wish to put on events, debates, and panels in the spirit of this pursuit.

Signed,

The Rutgers-Camden Chapter of the Federalist Society Executive Board