By my signature below, I acknowledge the following terms and conditions related to enrollment in the Rutgers Law School Summer Session:

1. Upon acceptance into the Rutgers Law School Summer Session, I will be administratively registered for the course(s) indicated on my application.
2. Upon being registered for courses by the Rutgers law school administration, I automatically become fully liable for payment of all tuition and fees. The University will confirm the act of registration by mailing a tuition bill to the address indicated on my application. The University is not responsible for the non-delivery of billing notices.
3. As a registered student in the Rutgers Law Summer Session, I am fully liable for tuition charges, unless I withdraw from the course or courses in accordance with the procedures and deadlines enumerated below.
4. I acknowledge that failure to submit the tuition payment does not constitute a withdrawal. I understand that I will continue to be billed for courses for which I was initially registered and from which I did not subsequently withdraw.
5. Stopping payment on a check does not constitute withdrawal from Summer Session.
6. Once registered, I may drop a course or courses by contacting Assistant Dean Ed Rentezelas, 856-225-6703, email: ed.rentezelas@rutgers.edu. Courses dropped 3 business days prior to the start of the course(s) in question will result in a full refund. Late drops will result in a reduced refund amounts set by the University.
7. For any course I drop after the second class meeting, no refund of tuition or the student fee will occur.
