The Marshall-Brennan Constitutional Literacy Project is a yearlong seminar about the Bill of Rights. In the spring semester, Fellows teach Constitutional Law in Camden-area high schools. Admission by application only. The main qualification is passion! No prior teaching experience is required. Open to rising 2Ls and rising 3Ls on the Camden campus. Attend one of two information sessions: March 12 or April 1. Lunch will be served. Applications due April 8. https://goo.gl/forms/JntA3tnY0DwzDURs1