“Theorizing Criminal Law Reform”
CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

Friday, April 21

8:00-9:00 Breakfast available

9:00-9:15 Opening remarks

Commentator: Vera Bergelson
Chair: Alec Walen

10:30-11:30 Shuai Zhang – “A Challenge to Criminal Procedure Dogmatism”
Commentator: Antony Duff
Chair: Íñigo Ortiz de Gimeno Urbina

11:35-12:35 Jessica Roth – “The Legitimacy of Innocence Commissions and Reform Entities: A Comparative Perspective”
Commentator: Margo Kaplan
Chair: John Kleinig

12:35-1:30 Lunch

1:30-2:30 Pamela Ferguson – “Reforming Criminal Procedure: Should Adversarial Systems of Criminal Justice Become More Like Inquisitorial Ones?”
Commentator: Stuart Green
Chair: Amanda Clough

2:45-3:45 Jørn Jacobsen – “Constitutions and Criminal Law Reform”
Commentator: Douglas Husak
Chair: Richard Schmeckel

3:50-4:50 Amna Akbar and Marbre Stahly-Butts – “Transformative Reforms of the Movement for Black Lives”
Commentator: Michael Cahill
Chair: Antony Duff

Saturday, April 22

8:00-9:00 Breakfast available
9:00-10:00 Erin Murphy – "Writing on an Unclean Slate: Challenges in Substantive Reform of a Penal Code"
Commentator: Jeremy Horder
Chair: Youngjae Lee

Commentator: Paul Robinson
Chair: Stuart Green

11:20-12:20 Luis Chiesa – “Comparative Analysis as Antidote to Tunnel Vision”
Commentator: Roger Clark
Chair: Sungyong Kang

12:20-1:15 Lunch

1:15-2:15 Michal Krolikowski and Krzysztof Szczuski -- “Ethical Legitimacy of Criminal Law”
Commentator: Tatjana Hörnle
Chair: Usmaan Sidiqqui

2:30-3:30 Hadassa Noorda – “Criminal Law Reform as Response to Terrorist Threats”
Commentator: Alec Walen
Chair: Alice Ristroph

Commentator: Gideon Yaffe
Chair: Jeremy Horder

4:40-5:00 Concluding Discussion