RUTGERS LAW SCHOOL – SPRING 2020 EXAMINATION SCHEDULE
Exams Begin Friday, May 1, 2020 10:00 a.m.
Exams End Saturday, May 16, 2020, 3:00 p.m.

Advisory Notice: Rutgers Law School publishes in advance a final examination schedule which generally is not subject to change after the advance registration period is completed. Courses are scheduled at the law school to minimize conflicting examinations (i.e., exams which occur simultaneously); however, it is ultimately the student’s responsibility to ensure that exams do not conflict. Under Rule 15 of the law school’s Academic rules, a student may seek prior permission from Associate Dean Thompson to defer one exam to the next available day where there is an exam conflict. An exam conflict exists when a student has two exams on the same day or three exams within a span of three days or less. In order to obtain a deferment, students must alert Associate Dean Thompson of the exam conflict by the end of the add/drop period. Exam deferments will be provided sparingly and only in exigent circumstances.

First-year examinations are scheduled to equalize the intervals between tests and, when possible, to provide a break between upper class examinations. Students are urged not to construct a course load that produces unduly burdensome examination requirements.

For in-class exams, students should report to classrooms at least 15 minutes prior to the start time.

Note: Please check the Exam Administration Methods when the exam packet is posted prior to the exam period. In the event of a discrepancy between the Exam Administration Methods and this exam schedule, please follow the Exam Administration Methods. Changes typically happen when faculty opt to be more lenient about self-scheduling than is initially set forth in this schedule.
