$ - Professional Responsibility S.1: Students must enroll in both the main section (667-01 and a skills section (A, B or C) (570) of this course.

^ Evidence §3, Professional Responsibility §12, and Trial Advocacy §1:

These courses will run on a common set of course materials in a synchronous manner. Students are encouraged to enroll in all three units simultaneously, and priority will be given to students who are cross enrolled in the three sections at one time. The intention of this package of classes is to give students a seamless, integrated experience that more closely mimics real practice.

* = This three credit course has been scheduled to reduce the late-hour meeting by one-half. The two-hour session beginning at 6:10pm meets every week. The two-hour session beginning at 8:10pm meets every other week, with the first two-hour late session meeting on the earliest possible weekday of the semester.
